

Software user guide

1. This software is used to help chemistry beginners better learn and understand chemical equations and their balancing methods.
2. Software can achieve automatic balancing of chemical equations and ion equations.
3. This software includes a periodic table which can help students learn and remember.
4. Software integrates common methods of chemical equation balancing with a summary of chemical equations in high school.
5. Operation guide:
 - 5.1 Click on the element on the left side of the software to enter the corresponding element.
 - 5.2 Infrequently used elements can be entered by clicking on the periodic table.
 - 5.3 Numbers and parentheses can be entered via the right button.
 - 5.4 Activate Shift to enter the above table.
 - 5.4 Click balance button to balance the equation.